Notice of Elections Candidates

Notice is hereby given to the membership of the New Brunswick Aboriginal Peoples Council and to any off-reserve Aboriginal People who qualify for membership, that an election will take place for the position of President & Chief for a two-year term. The election will take place by mail-in ballot starting on July 21, 2017 and ending on August 19, 2017 at 12:00 noon.

All full members (including non-resident Members and Life-Time members) will have their names automatically placed on the voter's list. Any off-reserve Aboriginal People who qualify for full membership may apply to have their names added to the voters list on the prescribed form ("Application to be added to the voters list") no later than July 21. Proof of Aboriginal ancestry and address must be provided to the Chief Electoral Officer.

This election will be to elect a new President and Chief of the New Brunswick Aboriginal Peoples Council for a two-year term. Two people have submitted their names to the Electoral Commission and have been accepted by the Commission. Running for president is:

Barry Labillois
Wendy Wetteland

Amanda LeBlanc ran unopposed, she is now the Vice Chief of the New Brunswick Aboriginal Peoples Council for a two-year term.

Please refer to the New Brunswick Aboriginal Peoples Council's website www.nbapc.org and the Constitution and By-laws for additional information on duties and eligibility of the President & Chief as well as the election process. For further information to obtain additional forms, please contact the Chief Electoral Officer.

The Chief Electoral Officer thanks all candidates for their interest and wishes everyone the best of luck.

Warren Brown Sr.
